Methodist District Superintendent Shifted From Here To Mineral Wells

The Rev. Finis A. Crutchfield, Methodist district superintendent here for five years, was appointed pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mineral Wells by Bishop Wm. C. Martin Sunday.

Announcement of new appointments in the Central Texas Conference was made at Fort Worth.

The new district superintendent is Dr. O. A. Chisholm, veteran Methodist minister who has been pastor of the First Methodist Church of Mineral Wells. Under his direction a huge new church building has been constructed in the Texas city.

The Rev. J. Morris Bailey, pastor of the Eleventh Avenue Methodist Church was transferred to the pastorate of the First Methodist

Storm Strikes At Gainesville With Destructive Wind

The latest in Texas hit-and-run storms struck Gainesville on the Red River last night. Weather conditions favored more storms today.

The only damage to Gainesville itself was from the 3.15-inch rain. But the North Texas City's airport was damaged by winds up to 65 miles an hour. Ten planes were wrecked; that loss alone was estimated at $25,000.

Ardmore, Okla., which is just across the Red river from Gainesville, had 3.68 inches of rain.

Elsewhere in Texas rains were lighter. Light showers hit the South Plains shortly before 10 p. m. last night and continued until 2:30 a. m. today. Lubbock's rainfall totaled .34 of an inch, bringing the 1949 total to 18.77 inches—compared with the normal annual total of 19.35.

Weather observers in the Lubbock area thought the week-long rains were ending. But the U. S. weather bureau in Dallas predicted more thunder showers through tomorrow in much of the state—including the South Plains.

The South Plains and Panhandle rains have delayed the wheat harvest and may have damaged the South Plains cotton crop.

Statement Made By Scientists Declares AEC Does Fine Job

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—Nine scientists who advise the atomic energy commission sent congress a statement today saying the AEC has developed "a sound and forward looking program."

Convictions For Contempt Against Writers Upheld

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled today that a congressional committee has the right to demand that a witness say whether or not he is a Communist.

The decision upheld contempt convictions of Screen Writers John Howard Lawson and Dalton Trumbo.

They were among ten Hollywood figures cited for contempt for refusing to answer questions of the House Un-American Activities Committee during its communism-in-the-film-capital investigation of last year.

Both Lawson and Trumbo declined to state, in answer to questions of the committee, whether they were or had ever been a member of the Communist party, or whether or not either was a member of the Screen Writers Guild.

Dallas Firm Is Selected By City To Make Survey

A Dallas firm of consulting engineers has been selected to make a survey of the Corsicana water distribution and sewage disposal system, it was announced Monday by Mayor Hubert T. Braselton.

Mayor Braselton said a city commission committee had agreed on the selection of T. Carr Forrest Jr. as the engineer, and that a contract would be signed this week.

The committee, consisting of Mayor Braselton, Edgar Rittersbacher, water commissioner, and P. Travis Fullwood, street and sanitary commissioner, was authorized by the commission to enter into contract after studying bids.

Mayor Braselton said a fee of $2,400 for the work had been agreed upon.

Forest has made a similar survey of the Dallas systems.

Under terms of the contract, the firm will study the local situation and make suggestions for remedies where needed.

If any of the work is carried out and the firm is selected to supervise expansion and construction, the $2,400 will be applied to the percentage cost of supervision, Mayor Braselton said.

The mayor did not know when actual work would be started by the firm.

The master plan was sought by Rittersbacher, who has repeatedly warned the commission that something must be done on each of the worn out systems.

sound and forward looking program."

They called the progress "clear proof of the competency and devotion to duty of the commission."

Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, who helped develop the atomic bomb, read the statement to the congressional committee investigating the AEC's management. He said it was adopted unanimously by the nine-member AEC scientific advisory committee.

For himself, Oppenheimer warmly defended the policy of exporting certain types of radio-active isotopes for research.

In response to questions, he said he knows of no way that Russia would be helped in the atomic energy race of the Soviets should get hold of some of the isotopes.

No isotopes have been sent to Russia, but some have gone to neighboring Finland and Norway.

Oppenheimer said the director of the atomic weapons laboratory at Los Alamos, N. M. He is now with the Institute of Advanced Studies at Princeton, N. J.

Oppenheimer was called before the senate-house atom-energy committee as it went into its third week of hearings on how the atomic energy commission has conducted its business.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) has leveled a charge of "incredible mismanagement" against the AEC and its chairman, David E. Lilienthal. Hickenlooper demands that Lilienthal be fired.

One of the matters that Hickenlooper cites in the report or radioactive isotopes to foreign countries. These isotopes are formed in the atomic furnaces of the AEC. They are useful in many kinds of research.

Oppenheimer said that to his knowledge the U. S. military establishment, when developing new war weapons, has never found it necessary to use isotopes of the kind which have been exported.

He said, too, that he cannot recall and application of the exportable-type isotopes to atomic energy since World War.

Dr. Oppenheimer emphasized that the type of isotopes permitted for export does not include any of the "fissionable" materials. Fission plays a key role in atomic weapons.

A uranium isotope, for example, is not allowed for export. But calcium, iodine, sulphur and others of similar nature are. Isotopes, Dr. Oppenheimer said, are used principally for "tracers" in research work.

Effort Is Made At Assassination Of Strike Leader

MARION, O., June 13.—(AP)—Police today worked with only a few clues—bulletshot and wadding from a shotgun shell—in an effort to learn who shot at Union Organizer Thomas S. Mitchell yesterday.

Mitchell, 30-year-old Cleveland, is director of the 67-day-old strike against the Ohio Associated Telephone Co. here from Standard.

The organizer is recuperating from an appendectomy. He was asleep in a first-floor room at Marion City Hospital early Sunday when the single blast was fired through a window.

The shot missed him by inches. A few pellets lodged in his pillow. The bulk of the charge splattered the ceiling above his bed.

The shooting resembled closely attempts on the lives of the brothers, Walter and Victor Reuther, president and educational director, respectively, of the CIO-United Auto Workers. Both were hit by a shotgun blast fired through a window of their homes—Walter last year, and his brother a few weeks ago.

Gasoline Dealer Contracts Held Illegal By Court

WASHINGTON, June 13.—(AP)—The Supreme court today decided the Standard Oil Company of California violated federal anti-trust laws by contracting with independent gasoline dealers to buy all their fuel from Standard.

The decision was handed down on a Standard Oil appeal which said that to hold the company guilty of violating the anti-trust statutes would have "immense and disastrous" effects on business practices.

Justice Frankfurter delivered the 5-4 decision.

Justice Jackson wrote a dissent in which Chief Justice Vinson and Justice Burton joined. Justice Douglas also wrote a dissent.

Joining Frankfurter on the majority side were Justices Black, Reed, Murphy and Rutledge.

The majority opinion declared that Standard Oil's contract had the effect of lessening competition in both interstate and intrastate commerce.

But Douglas in a stinging dissent asserted that the court's elimination of the Standard Oil contract "sets the stage for Standard and other oil companies to build service station empires of their own."

Legislature Gets In Dispute Over Orphans' Homes

House Refuses To Put Institutions Under Youth Agency

AUSTIN, June 13.—(AP)—A dispute over a senate amendment to bring state orphaned homes under the proposed Youth Development Council ended today in house rejection of the change.

Refusal to concur in senate amendments was by 102-18 vote. The house demanded a conference committee.

Representatives were split on whether state orphaned homes should be under control of the newly established state eugenics board or the council that would handle juvenile problems as a whole.

"It would be unwise to put orphaned homes under the same management as the reformatory institutions," Rep. Jerry Stockard of Frost told the house. He said such a combination would attach a stigma to being an orphan.

Rep. Sid Gregory of Gatesville said for the senate version of the bill.

"All youth services should be brought together under one head," he urged. He feared that the delay caused by sending the measure to conference committee might result in the bill's failing to pass before the session ends.

Committees working on the four appropriation bills needed to run the state for the next two years had hopes of getting three of them out for house and senate consideration in another week.

The senate sought to force the big bill conservation money bill into a conference committee. It voted 20 to 9 against a resolution that would have removed the senate's $5,000,000 amendment from the bill.

Glass Broken, Wrist Watches Taken By Thief

A window-smashing burglar stole 15 wrist watches from M. Evans, jewelry and loan concern, 113 N. Beaton St. early Monday and escaped.

The watches, priced at $29.30 each, were valued at $539.50 on the retail market, according to Allen Callaway, employee of the store.

The burglar left a heavy round rock and a dirty khaki shirt. The rock had been wrapped in the shirt to deaden the sound of break-in glass. A single showwindow on the south side of the building was broken, and the thief took only the single board of men's watches. Callaway said all of the timepieces were second-hand. Chief of Police Bruce Nutt said Monday that the director of the U. S. Customs, J. Campbell, had been notified of the burglary.

Apology Sought From FBI Chief By Dr. Condon

By The Associated Press

Publication of more secret reports from FBI files brought today a fresh flood of denials and an emphatic demand for an apology from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The reports are being read over government objections in the espionage trial of Judith Coplon, 28 former justice department employee.

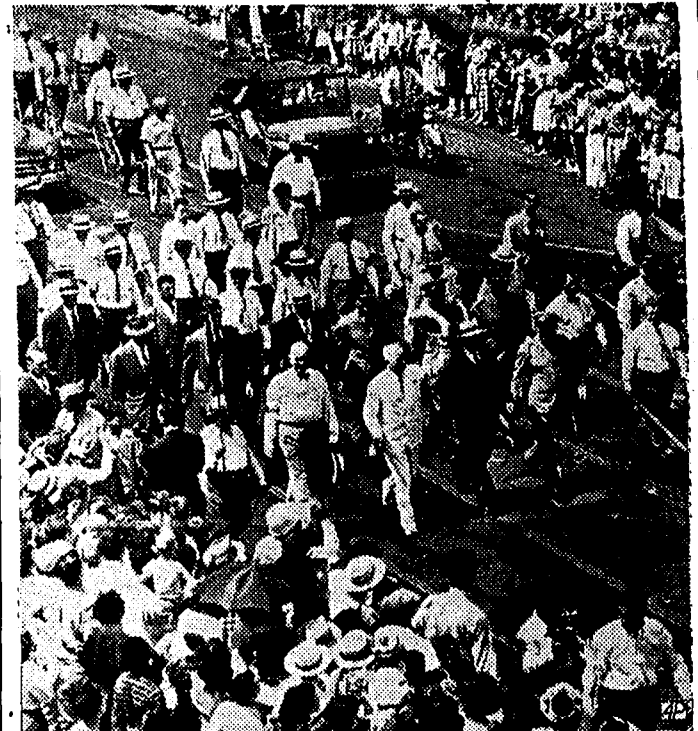

The demand for the apology came from Dr. Edward U. Condon, director of the bureau of standards whose wife was mentioned in one of the reports. She was said by an FBI informant to have arranged for a meeting between a businessman and a suspected Russian agent.

Condon complained that "any American can be slandered, his name ruined, his career blasted by any other person who chooses to relay malicious gossip to the FBI."

He renewed his demand for an apology after Hoover said he would have no comment on the Coplon case.

A denial also came from Mrs. Irving Alesbury of Great Neck, N. Y., reported by an informant to have been in contact with a Russian in charge of Red army espionage.

The Coplon trial in Washington is one of three which are delving into alleged Communist activities and espionage.

Coal Miners Cease Work By Order Of John L. Lewis; Talks Started

PHILADELPHIA, June 13.—(AP)—The nation's 480,000 coal miners quit work today for a week under orders of John L. Lewis.

The boys of the United Mine Workers moved into Philadelphia for contract talks with the U. S. Steel Corp.

The meeting is without precedent. U. S. Steel never before has met with Lewis while a walkout was in progress.

Lewis and U. S. Steel Corp. officials about midday adjourned their coal contract talks until June 23.

What the mine workers' chief-tain will ask was not made public but it is expected his plans may call for a "share-the-work" system to give all miners about the same amount of work and pay whether demand for coal is heavy or slight.

Spokesmen for U. S. Steel said they have no idea what Lewis will ask. "John" asked us to meet him," a spokesman said. "That's all we know."

He explained that U. S. Steel, which covers 20,000 coal diggers in "captive" mines, agrees to meet with Lewis despite the walkout because the invitation was extended prior to the stoppage.

In the past, Lewis' talks with big steel often has set the pattern for the entire coal industry.

Lewis, in his walkout order last week said some miners are going full blast while others work only a day or so a week.

He issued his stop-work order as contract talks were under way with one segment of the industry, the Southern Coal Producers Association.

Lewis' share-the-work proposition was voiced at the union's convention last fall. "If we are going to starve in this industry at any time," he said, "we will just all starve together."

Radio System Is Planned For Navarro County

Prospects for a two-way frequency modulation radio system for the Navarro county sheriff's department were bright Monday, as the commission's court voted to accept bids on equipment.

Long advocated by Sheriff David Castles, the FM system—now being adopted in police radio work throughout Texas and the nation—would include three mobile units for automobiles and one base station at the courthouse.

Plans call for 60-watt stations, both in cars and in the courthouse, operating on a frequency of 37.180 kilocycles.

A towering FM antenna would be erected atop the courthouse, and radio signals would blanket the county. The action also would be in contact with the State Department.

Granddaughter Of Germany's Last Kaiser Will Marry Amarillo Man

LANGEN, Germany, June 13.—(AP)—A Royal princess of Prussia will soon be at home "Deep in the Heart of Texas."

Princess Cecilie, 31, hazel-eyed granddaughter of Germany's late Kaiser Wilhelm, will trade her family's medieval castle for an apartment in Amarillo when she marries Texan Clyde Harris, 31. He is the son of Konowka, Okla., Banker Bert Harris.

The princess' numbers among her ancestors Queen Victoria of England, the emperors of Germany, and innumerable reigning princes, grand dukes and Matting. Her father is the former Crown Prince Wilhelm.

She is a sister of Prince Louis Ferdinand of Prussia who worked for the Ford Motor Company in Detroit between the two World Wars and visited the United States last year.

The wedding plans, secret until yesterday, call for a marriage June 21 in the bleak Hohenzollern castle at Tiesingen in the Bavarian Alps.

Then "we will settle down in Texas" says the blonde princess who is listed in the Almanach De Gotha—royalty's "social register"—as Cecilie Viktoria Anastasia Zita Thyra Adelheid. Last name Hohenzollern. There has been no announcement whether she will keep her title after the marriage or be known as Mrs. Harris.

Harris said he met the princess in 1945—soon after V-E Day—when, a captain in the U. S. Army, he was tracing looted works of art. The Texan is an interior decorator in Amarillo.

In the course of his job he went to the Schloss Wolfsgarten, picturesque hunting lodge belonging to Prince Ludwig of Hesse, where Princess Cecilie had taken refuge when she fled burning Berlin.

"We knew each other for a year, and then I went home," he said yesterday.

Last year Harris, after corresponding for four years, returned to Germany.

"We made our plans after I got back," he said.

The couple will be separated by the wedding.

Limited Accord Is Accepted By Russia As Goal

Overall Political Settlement Now Seems Unlikely

PARIS, June 13.—(AP)—A qualified Western diplomat said today Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Vishinsky agreed in a private weekend talk with British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin to seek limited agreement on a way of life for Germany.

Vishinsky agreed in his talk with Bevin, this informant said, to try to reach agreement on Berlin currency, trade between East and West Germany, and road and rail traffic.

When it appeared likely that the West has given up hope of reaching overall political accord on Germany now, these were held out to have been the main "limited" aims of the West.

Vishinsky still insists on adoption of a Soviet-sponsored currency for all Berlin under Soviet control, and resumption of East-West German trade. Bevin, replying, told Vishinsky the West insists on a written pledge assuring the right of free access to Western sectors of Berlin, the informant added.

The West is not going along with Vishinsky's single currency to fix up some kind of arrangement which might embody pegging the two Berlin currencies at some exchange rate. The Western mark now is worth about four times as much as the East mark.

At last night's meeting, U. S. Secretary of State Acheson abandoned customary diplomatic language for homely American talk to describe a Vishinsky proposal to discuss a peace treaty.

It is, Acheson declared, "as full of propaganda as a dog is of fleas."

"In fact," he added, "I think it is full of lies and no dog."

He said the Russian told of Russian Foreign Minister Andrei A. Vishinsky at the close of a session of the council of foreign ministers. Western officials said almost a whole session was devoted to Russian propaganda appeals to the Germans.

The ministers later went into a secret session which American sources said was devoted largely to discussing the future course of the conference.

The conference was decided to hold the next session tomorrow.

Vishinsky had proposed Friday that each of the four powers to discuss the future of a peace treaty to the Foreign Ministers' Council within three months. The draft would provide for withdrawal of occupation forces from Germany within a year after conclusion of the peace treaty.

The Russian declared the Western powers have 400,000 troops in Germany as against 200,000 Soviet troops.

Acheson had said Friday the West had 240,000 men in Germany as compared with 340,000 Russians. The Russian, he said, had 60 percent less troops than Vishinsky said and that the West "thought" Vishinsky understated the number of Russians in Germany.

Acheson told Vishinsky the public would judge by deeds, not words, which powers really want a peace treaty. He said Soviet actions in its occupation zone are not consistent with its expressed desires.

Governor Jester Delays Decision On Decontrol Bill

Gov. Beauford H. Jester said here Sunday that a senate amendment allowing a veto on the bill is not consistent with its expressed desires.

Gov. Jester spent Sunday here and discussed the new law in bitter battle over rent decontrol.

He said that inasmuch as U. S. Housing Expediter T. H. Woods said the amendment probably would make the bill contrary to federal law, he may not now sign it at all.

He said he had written a letter in which he told Arthur E. Blard, San Antonio real estate agent, he would sign the bill when it came to him. Blard had written Jester recommending that controls be removed from Texas rental housing.

The governor said he wrote the letter before the senate put on the amendment, but now he can't make a formal decision until he has a chance to study the bill as amended.

Jester and Woods conferred in Austin Friday, with the latter asking a veto of the measure. Woods said later that if Jester doesn't block rent decontrol in Texas the federal government will try to. He added that some cities in other states had tried to repeal their own controls and had been blocked in court.

DRIVING LICENSES

It is unusual for the President of the United States to turn his attention to the issuance of drivers' licenses for automobiles. He did so recently on the occasion of an appearance before the annual Conference on Highway Safety. The issuance of driving licenses is beyond the scope of the federal government, being purely a state matter. But the President's indictment of some state practices was uncomfortably accurate.

In about half of the states no examination worthy of the name is required in the issuance of a license to drive. The others have examinations of varying degrees of thoroughness for the original license, which then may be renewed from time to time as required. New York State has taken the lead with a law requiring re-examination of every driver involved in three accidents within a period of 18 months. It still remains for some state to set the precedent of requiring every licensed driver to take periodically an examination stiff enough to reveal whether or not he is fit to drive.

Only a handful of states make a practice of suspending or revoking drivers' licenses for such breaches of traffic safety law as speeding, disregard of traffic control signals, driving while intoxicated, and reckless driving.

It is well known that human failure causes most automobile accidents. Any material cut in the death and injury toll from traffic accidents depends on reducing the element of human failure. What better way could there be than through a nationwide tightening of driver licensing requirements?

OPINION BY RADIO

The Federal Communications Commission has removed its eight-year prohibition against the expression of editorial opinion by radio stations. This is a welcome step forward for radio as a public service, and a doubly welcome step backward by government, away from the dangerous brink of speech control.

For the last eight years the Commission has permitted radio news analysts and commentators to have opinions, but has forbidden the radio stations themselves, as institutions, to have opinions. To draw a comparison with the printed press, it was as though this newspaper would be permitted to print the signed articles of columnists, but be prohibited from printing this column of its own editorial opinion. Under our Constitution the government has never yet succeeded in muzzling these editorial columns of the free newspapers, but the desire to do so has more than once been suspected of high officials. The control of radio opinion has been a constant reminder of that desire.

There is one difference between radio and newspapers which must be recognized. Anyone who has the enterprise, gumption and wherewithal to manage the task can establish a newspaper and publish it, without a by-your-leave from anyone; there are no inflexible limits on the number of newspapers which can exist. But there is room on the air waves for only so many radio stations. Therefore the government must exercise control over the establishment and conduct of stations, which it does through the licensing process. The government ought to require every radio station to give a measure of public service consistent with the trust of its license, since that license

HOROSCOPE

When Leo's horoscope I read,
The sign of Leo being mine,
The daily counsel that I need
Appears in every printed line.

"Rub shoulders with your fellow-

"This day, beware of cunning

"Work hard and do the best you

"Buy nothing that you can't

"Be friendly. Bitter quarrels

"To all in need assistance lend,
And when the busy day is done
At home a quiet evening spend."

Oh, wise astrologers who read

If I could but your counsel heed represents a monopolistic piece of radio space which could just as well be given to some other operator.

The government should make sure that a radio license is used for the general good. But it should not be necessary, in order to do that, to police the opinions expressed over the air.

KNOWING AMERICA

They were amazed by the freedom Americans have, and the wide spaces in which to move around and exercise it. They also were properly impressed by the wealth of America and the opportunities of the individual to acquire it. "They" were four German labor leaders who have been in America studying labor-management relations, in search of information which might be helpful in rebuilding the German federation of labor unions, which was pretty much devastated by the Nazi regime and the war.

In places where they visited they may have done as much good for America as they may later be able to do for Germany. Their reactions to American life ought to open the eyes of a few of the Americans who take for granted our freedom and wide spaces and opportunities. The German visitors would probably be amazed at the number of Americans who don't really appreciate these things, because they don't really know America.

In the summer months most Americans will be taking vacation trips. Some may only move from city to the country, or vice versa, for a week, while others may go from one coast to the other. Some will cross the borders into Canada and Mexico, others will take to the seas. Wherever they go, most vacationers will become a little better acquainted with the geography of America. A moment should be taken, too, for appreciating the freedom that goes with all that geography.

SURPRISING TRUTHS

Truth comes unexpectedly even out of the mouths of Communists. At the trial of the eleven top Reds in New York City, charged with conspiring to teach violent revolution, a government witness testified that one Communist leader said that Communism could never carry the country by an election. The only way in which they could get power would be by revolution. Even if this utterance is of Communist origin, it is plain and simple truth.

One even more devastating fact of American life which the Communists may begin sometimes dimly to discern is the difficulty, not to say impossibility, of getting home-owners with jobs and growing children and gardens to join a revolution. Americans might keep that truth in mind too.

WATCH THE WOMEN

The women of Latin America are taking notice and going places. They can vote in thirteen countries, and can hold office, even including the presidency, in seven. These latter are Brazil, Chile, Cuba, Ecuador, Panama, Uruguay and Venezuela. The Latin American countries are intellectually active, but socially have been extremely conservative. This makes these achievements of women's progress even more remarkable.

For those looking for a vacation idea, here's a thought: Why not cross the world's longest unfortified boundary line and have a little fun in the land of our national neighbor to the north?

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

District Supervisors Navarro-Hill Soil Conservation District: Morris Crawford, chairman; W. O. Pearce, vice-chairman; Thad Jones, secy.

Approximately 125 women attended the ladies Soil Conservation tour on Friday, June 3. This included clubs from all parts of the county. They met at the court house here in Corsicana and boarded buses which took them through the Drane and Barry communities to observe conservation practices and the great need for speeding up putting these practices on the land. The tour was sponsored by F. H. Harvey, of the Texas Power and Light Company and all agricultural agencies in the county.

The principal speaker was Fred Shaw, of the Texas Power and Light Company, and the route was planned by W. E. Church, Conservationist of the Corsicana Work Unit.

Things observed on the tour were eroded fields; badly eroded roadside ditches cause by unprotected terrace outlets; sodded collective terrace outlets; vetch and humus grown for cover crops, for increasing fertility and for speed production; and terraced and contoured fields with proper terrace outlet established.

H. O. Varnell, whose farm is 2 miles east of Barry, has harvested 18 acres of common rescue grass. Approximately 7,500 pounds of seed were produced after combining and drying seed in a special seed drying machine. The seed were kept under 180 degrees of heat for 5 hours.

Charles Pearce, Corsicana conservation group, whose farm is 6 miles south of Kerens, harvested 570 pounds per acre of Singletary peas from a 7 acre field which had been idle for several years.

American Farmer Said Producing Too Many Peanuts

DALLAS, June 13.—(AP)—Are American farmers growing too many peanuts?

That says Bill Seals, president of the National Peanut Association. "They have a certain market—the federal government," Seals, who lives in Washington, D. C., was here for the Southwest Peanut Growers Association's annual convention.

He said the federal government guarantees the peanut grower $211 to $236 a ton. Peanut shellers or manufacturers must meet that price or the farmer will sell to the government, Seals said.

Seals said a "certain market" with the government had encouraged farmers to increase production.

Last year, an estimated two million tons of peanuts were grown in the country. This year, the government has ordered the growers to reduce their acreage by 20 percent.

"Farmers must reduce their acreage to be eligible for government-supported prices, but that will not necessarily reduce the number of tons grown," Seals said.

Seals said farmers who scattered peanut seeds loosely in the past, may plant more carefully; that careful growing can produce a larger yield per acre.

Wind And Hail Damage At Frost; Light Showers

Wind of gale proportions late Saturday at Frost ripped a tin roof from the Frost Lumber Company building, disrupted power and communication wires and the accompanying hail did considerable crop damage on nearby farms. No one was injured. Little rain fell.

Cotton on the Owen Williams farm one half mile north of Frost was flattened by hail which stripped the leaves from the stalks. The cotton crop on this farm is a total loss, according to Frost people who visited the farm.

Rice, Blomberg Grove and Dawson reported light showers and Richland is credited with a "good rain."

No rain fell at Kerens and a spokesman in that city said "we have not had enough rain in the past two weeks to wet a flea—guess we will have to start paying our preacher."

The total rainfall in Corsicana over the week-end amounted to .42 inch with .08 inch Saturday night and .34 inch Sunday.

Each was sentenced to one year imprisonment and a $1,000 fine. They have been free on bond pending the appeal, which now appears certain to go to the supreme court.

The decision does not close the door against a witness refusing to say whether or not he is a Communist on grounds that to answer would "incriminate" or "degrade" him. That is another matter coming under a section of the constitution saying, in effect, that no man can be forced to testify against himself.

The movie figures did not give that as a reason for their refusal to answer. They simply took the position that Congress had no right to ask the question.

The Lawson and Trumbo cases are the only two of the so-called "unfriendly ten" which have gone to trial.

The cases of the others have been held up by an informal agreement pending outcome of the appeals. Still awaiting trial are Ring Lardner, Jr., Albert Maltz, Alvah Bessie, Samuel Ornitz, Herbert Biberman, Edward Smyth, Robert Adrian Scott and Lester Cole.

Lawson and Trumbo declined to answer the committee's questions and based their court fight on the contention that the committee was seeking to invade their constitutional rights.

In rejecting their appeal, the three-man tribunal said unanimously:

"This is not a novel contention. It has been before this and other federal courts several times in recent years with appropriate variations to fit the facts of the particular case."

The appellate court decision went on:

"We hold that in view of the representations to the Congress as to the nature, purposes and program of Communism and the Communist party, x x x Congress has power to make an inquiry of an individual which may elicit the answer that the witness is a believer in Communism or a member of the Communist party."

Trumbo had called the committee's questions a direct attack on the secrecy of the ballot—by inquiring into his political beliefs. Lawson charged the Congressional group was trying "to gain control of the motion pictures."

Both contended their right of free speech had been violated. But the appeals court declared: "It is fully established by repeated holdings of the supreme court that the right of free speech is not absolute but must yield to national interests justifiably thought to be of larger importance. The same is true of the right to remain silent."

On the specific issue of the House committee's power to force an answer to its questions, the court said:

"So that there may be no mistake or misunderstanding and because the point here involved has been proven to be one of constant recurrence, we expressly hold herein that the House committee of Un-American Activities, or a properly appointed subcommittee thereof, has the power to inquire whether a witness subpoenaed by it is or is not a member of the Communist party or a believer in Communism."

And Congress necessarily, the decision said "has the power to refuse to answer that question."

McLellan said he had prepared proposed constitutional amendment to permit issuance of the bonds and hoped to introduce it today.

Rep. Jimmy Horan of Archer City still had hopes of getting his veterans bonus measure out on the floor.

The driver financial responsibility bill which the house debated and then sent back to committee will be given a public hearing before the House Commerce and Manufacturing committee today at 3 p. m. Its backers, had hopes, too, of getting it back on the floor.

Seek Medical Advice Early In Pregnancy

By W. P. BROWN
Of Johnson's Pharmacy

Safer and easier pregnancies are the result of consulting the doctor in the first few months. The doctor can give you valuable advice which will make this experience easier for you physically and emotionally, so that you will emerge from it sound in health and ready for your new responsibilities.

By consulting the doctor early you assure yourself the best care. Normal pregnancies are the rule, but even normal pregnancies develop slight complications now and then which must be controlled to guard the health of mother and baby.

During pregnancy, and in the first year of the baby's life you will have many occasions to visit the drug store. Select a druggist for his skill and experience in compounding medicines, as well as for his helpfulness and courtesy.

valley over most of Texas today was expected to continue through tonight. Yesterday's high temperature was 101 at Presidio, this morning's low at Amarillo.

Rainfall reports for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m.—in addition to Gainesville's 3.15-inch downpour—included: Austin 21, San Antonio 1.8, San Antonio 37, Waco .64, San Angelo 10, Lufkin 27, Bryan .85, Cleburne .05, Mineral Wells .07 and Junction .43.

At Gainesville, the power was knocked out for 2-12 hours and telephone wires blown down by the 65-mile-an-hour wind.

Streets were flooded by a heavy rain.

Airport Manager Tim Osborne estimated damage to planes alone would be $25,000. Ten planes were wrecked, an empty barracks building was unroofed, hangar doors were blown off and the Osborne's house was partially unroofed.

Bryan, Lufkin, San Antonio and Rio Grande Valley points had thunderstorms. The wet front extended to Oklahoma and the Osborne's house was partially unroofed.

Hail accompanied scattered showers in Henderson county damaged corn and tomatoes near Chandler.

More rain was needed in the Palestine area, where tomato farmers welcomed week-end precipitation which revived their wilting crops. Rain in Anderson county yesterday ranged from more than half an inch upward.

Fields in the southern part of Anderson county and as far as the truck gardening area of Grapeland were standing in water.

Lufkin in East Texas reported "crops in this area have been aided immensely by slow rains." Lufkin's third of an inch yesterday brought the three-day total to 1.17 inches.

Scattered showers were expected at Corpus Christi, where rain was forecast for rough sailing in the day. Athens reported .12 of an inch of rain over the week-end.

COAL

As usual, all UMW coal diggers quit the pits today in compliance with Lewis' orders. Idle were about 400,000 soft coal miners and same 80,000 hard coal workers in Eastern Pennsylvania.

Hard coal retail dealers said they were flooded with orders and that plenty of fuel is available to meet all demands.

Lewis called the walkout under provisions of the contract which say that the miners work only when they're "willing and able."

The UMW's present contract expires June 30. The miners are scheduled to resume work a week from today—then quit again on June 25 to start their annual 10-day paid vacations.

If a new contract isn't signed by the time the men and their vacation they're not expected to return to work. The UMW has a traditional "no contract, no work" policy.

So far the UMW hasn't notified the big northern bloc of operators it wants to start contract talks. But that's expected soon, possibly before the end of the week.

Lewis hasn't revealed his exact demands for the miners who now average $14.05 daily and who have a whopping health and welfare fund from which they receive $100-a-month pensions and other benefits.

The coal operators finance the fund by paying a 20-cent-a-ton royalty on all coal produced. There's considerable conjecture Lewis wants the ante raised—possibly to 40 cents a ton.

Then, there's the matter of working hours. UMW leaders have made no secret they'd like the 40-hour week cut to 30 hours.

what Clyde tells me, I think I will like it."

Quick And Simple Test For Polio Is Expected Soon

NEW YORK, June 13.—(AP)—Likelihood that there soon will be a simple, quick test for polio was stressed yesterday in the eleventh annual report of the National Foundation For Infantile Paralysis.

Another good sign in the attack on the disease which the report stressed was the development of two steps toward producing a vaccine.

Development of a quick test for polio would remove the present serious handicap of delay before a doctor can be certain of its presence. Early treatment is essential.

In the vaccine development, the first step is to discover how many different strains or kinds of infantile paralysis there are. Since vaccine made for only one kind is not good for another.

Discovery of a method to grow the virus, the microbe which causes polio, outside of living nervous tissues, is the second step. This process makes it easier to study the virus.

The foundation reported that in fighting last year's polio outbreak it spent $4,250,000 more than it received in the March of Dimes. It had to spend reserve funds which had been accumulated for such an emergency. It now has a remaining reserve of $1,829,000.

There were 27,888 cases in last year's epidemic, second largest in the nation's history. Forty-two states exhausted their individual shares of March of Dimes funds, and the foundation met the deficits.

Storage Loan Grain Program Is Explained

Community and county committees assembled at the courthouse Monday and heard Triple A Secretary Bob Cliche explain the government's new storage loan program on grains.

The group met in the old commissioners courtroom. Cliche also gave the agriculturalists an up-to-date report on the Agricultural Conservation Association's office here.

Main purpose of the meeting was to acquaint the men with the loan program, so that they can go back to their communities and explain its operation to farmers, Cliche said.

partment of Public Safety Station at Arlington, and a receiver would be available to monitor Arlington's state broadcasts on the 42,900 KC frequency.

Mobile units could talk to each other.

The commissioners will accept bids until 10 a. m. July 11.

John K. Chaffield, communications engineer of the Motorola Radio Corp., of Dallas, submitted his bid at the commissioners' regular meeting Monday morning. He explained that the station could be equipped with a remote control device so that broadcasts could be made from the county jail.

The station would be similar to those in surrounding counties.

Sheriff Charles said he had asked the Corsicana Police Department to cooperate and join in with the county in setting up and operating the station. Remote control facilities would be used under such an agreement.

Regular audio modulation type police stations will be virtually obsolete within the near future. The Federal Communications Commission has adopted a new law whereby no AM frequency allotment will be made to city police stations after July 1, 1950.

This means they must begin operation of FM. The old-type, which can broadcast to greater distances but requires good atmospheric conditions, will be maintained in state police radio networks. FM, known to the public as "fiddle-free" broadcasting, will be used by all city and county police stations after July 1, 1950.

The commissioners' court's advertisement for bids appears elsewhere in the Daily Sun today.

A Blooming Grove delegation appeared before the court in the interest of a community road program. Headed by J. T. Black, Blooming Grove schools superintendent, and Drew Gillen, the group asked the court to seek farm-to-market roads linking various communities around Blooming Grove.

They termed the roads a "lifeline to our schools" and expressed eagerness in serving the communities placed on the roads.

The Texas Pipeline Company received the court's authorization to execute an easement relative to the firm's plans to construct a pipeline from the station southwest of Corsicana, running south, west and northwest to north of Barry and leaving the county in a northwesterly direction.

Commissioners reported at the session that numerous motorists in the county became confused at the court's action in placing all automobiles and trucks on the individual tax rolls for 1949. Notices are being mailed to the car owners advising them of the action, and some—observing the official county clerk's order—have thought they were about to be fined for some criminal violation.

Therefore, the court asked that the following statement be issued: By order of the Commissioners' Court all cars and trucks of Navarro county have been placed on the individual tax rolls for

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Clayton Asks For Closer Union Of Western Nations

HOUSTON, Tex., June 13.—(AP)—Former Undersecretary of State William L. Clayton called Friday night for an economic, diplomatic and military union of the western democracies.

He said this is necessary to achieve and preserve world peace. Clayton spoke at a forum on "Unity for Peace: A United Front," which was held at the Hotel Houston and Atlantic City both are necessary but not enough.

"There can be no peace until Russia has returned to her pre-war boundaries," Clayton said. "But the problem may be how to get Russia back on her own ground without a shooting war or a cold war which is costing so much."

"Stalin is recently reported to have said that the east is no more interested in war than the west, but less interested in peace and that therein lies her strength, which reveals the cynicism of Stalin."

"The democracies cannot last long in political and economic disorder."

He expanded on his idea for a western union.

"Some of us believe that the free world must organize itself into a unit—a unit for peace, a unit so powerful that no country would dare attack it."

Hand Injured Making Dive

A Greenville boy learned the hard way Sunday that it takes finesse and a certain amount of luck to dive from a 13-foot level into 5 feet of water.

The boy, Gene Huey, 14, was removed from a tank on the IOOF Home property after diving from a tree. He was taken to Corsicana Clinic and Hospital in a Corley ambulance, and released later after finding his injuries were limited to a broken finger.

Sniff The Whiff Before Using It To Call Firemen

When you see that big cloud of smoke billowing over your neighbor's house, take a deep sniff. If the odor is that of disincant, don't call the fire department.

The department had been wondering how long it would be ere somebody saw the DDT fogging machine in action and thought a fire was raging.

It happened at 7:40 a. m. Monday. The department was summoned to a "house fire" in the 1000 block of West Sixth Ave. They found the fogging machine fogging away.

Last summer it was the same old story, only fresher.

Odom Grocery Damaged By Fire Early Monday

Fire at 2 a. m. Monday gutted the M. O. Odom Grocery Store, 700 East Third Ave.

The store is owned by S. L. Burnett, 100 South Thirty-Fifth St., according to Fire Chief H. P. Bivins. Trapped by the blaze, John Allen, employee of the store, was unable to reach the outside through the store proper and had to escape by a window in another room. He was sleeping in the store, according to Bivins.

The fire, of unknown origin, destroyed all of the stock and practically ruined the one-story frame building.

The department also had an alarm at 7:30 a. m. Monday when a gas jet at the Vogue Cafe got out of control. It was the second run to the cafe in recent weeks.

Fire Chief Bivins said the loss on the grocery store blaze would aggregate $3,000.

Attitudes Affect Polio Dangers

Let your personal attitudes of preparation for the polio menace be on the positive side, public health officials say. A happy state of mind, they say, tends toward health and in cases of infection, toward recovery. Facts fight fears. Half or more of those having the disease show after-effects; another fourth, recover with very slight crippling. Don't let your own anxiety or fear reach your children. Your confidence makes things easier for you and for others.

Avoid overfatigue, chilling and swimming in water not declared safe by the public health department. Keep clean.

Call your doctor at once if disturbed by symptoms of headache, soreness or stiffness, or unexplained fever. Take his advice if he orders hospital care, and consult the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Largest, Most Colorful Square Dance Ever Held Here Staged Friday Night By Lions; Some 2 Thousand Present

By CLYDE E. JOHNSON
Daily Sun Staff Writer

The "Promenaders" of Corsicana took the spotlight Friday night at the Municipal Airport, where some 2,000 persons witnessed the largest and most colorful square dance festival ever held in this area.

Staged on the snail-paced concrete runway under flood lights, the Lions-sponsored festival ran far into the night as 14 callers from throughout East-Central Texas gave little rest to the approximately 80 squares that danced.

The "Promenaders" placed first in the grand square contest and were awarded the $25 first prize by Lions Secretary John Henry Bryant. The dancers were Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lee, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Egge, Jr., Ed Blackburn and Doris Wilson.

Judges in the dancing contest were the 14 callers. A square from Kaufman placed second and a Tyler group placed third. The latter staged an exhibition dance under the direction of Caller A. J. Harris of Tyler, who won first prize in the callers' contest.

Judges in the callers' contest were W. T. Statham, Marvin Williams, Derwood George, Next to Harris, who chose Travis Fox of Kaufman, Jim Compton of Corsicana placed third. John Faber of Tyler won honorable mention.

Prizes were $25, $15 and $10 for first, second and third places, respectively.

Announcement of the contest winners came shortly after midnight, climaxing about four hours of excellent dancing. It was difficult to see the best squares, the judges explained, because all were in good form, executing perfectly the commands of the callers.

Many of the colorfully-dressed dancers found their shoe soles worn slick from the constant, four-hour shuffling on the concrete runway, and there were holes worn in some. More than 300 couples participated.

Music for the festival was furnished by the Old Fashioned Rhythm Boys of Fort Worth, and Fred Harvey acted as master of ceremonies.

Not funds from the event will go to the Navarro County Memorial Hospital for the purchase of a double iron lung.

The 14 callers were as follows: Jim Compton, Corsicana; W. T. Statham, W. M. Williams, Jr., Hillsboro; Thomas H. Hickley, Hillsboro; Elmer Kisleng, New London; Mrs. Elmer Kisleng, New London; Bill Scarborough, Kaufman; Robert Davidson, Corsicana; Travis Fox, Kaufman; A. J. Harris, Tyler; Jack Stroube, Corsicana; Harry Bounds, Wortham; T. W. Wiley, Hubbard, and John Faber of Tyler.
